Little Quack's latest outing has him teaching his siblings a valuable lesson about making friends. When Little Ribbit appears at the pond, Widdle, Waddle, Piddle and Puddle all find a reason not to play with him: He's too tiny, too green, he can't quack and he's a frog! But Little Quack is game. The two start by splashing by the reeds; they have so much fun that Widdle asks to join them.

Little Quack's New Friend is a picture book about Little Quack the duck who plays with Little Ribbit the Frog even though he is different from Quack and his siblings. The story is about friendship. I love this story! Even though it's a picture book, I actually bought it at a Scholastic Book Fair in eighth grade because ducks are my favorite animals.
